Meghan Cunningham Corvin, equestrian coach, introduced us to the sport of equestrian last week. Not only successful on a national level, these student-athletes perform in the classroom and community as well, consistently maintaining a team GPA above 3.00 and contributing more than 1,000 community service hours (especially to Special Olympics) per semester. "We are excited about the future of the equestrian program at UT Martin," said Meghan.

Other highlights: there are 35 horses, 38 athletes, two styles cowboy and hunter; and four events. Great program!
