

Boom, boom, boom, her heart pounds as she waits for him. This scene is familiar, however the wait unnerves her like the first time. He is coming, the door opens, their eyes meet. Her stare is interrupted by the click of the door locking behind him.

He moves closer to her. His body intrigues her. Her memory cannot retain the feel of him, his smell or even his touch. He turns, she pulls him from behind, pressing him firmly against her. Her hands explore his body, making their way down to find the bulge he shyly tries to hide. She caresses him and pulls him around. Her lips find his, she kisses him gently. She releases his belt, then his button and finally his zipper. As her kisses become more intent, she reaches for him and exposes his fully erect penis. Her lips leave his, and slowly work their way down his body, kissing him discreetly. Her head now positioned in front of him, both hands stroking him, she licks his pre-cum soaked head. Her lips travel around the head of his cock, her fingers tight around his base, rotating slowly. Passionately she kisses him, her tongue flicking his skin. He looks down to see her head moving back and forth. He watches as his cock disappears between her lips, his legs grow weak, he could cum. She looks up at him and tightens her lips around his cock, slowly pulling her head back until his cock is free of her mouth. She stares closely at his enormous cock, she kisses the tip and stands up. He lifts her skirt, his hand moves up her thigh and inside her panties. His fingers find her lips and then her clit. He teases her before sinking his finger deep within her. He pounds his finger in her drenched cunt and she claws his back in sheer ecstasy. He slowly removes his finger and rubs up and down her slit. Juices flow out of her body. She wants him, he tells her not to cum yet. She grabs his dick, works it, pulls him close to her. She slips her panties off and perches herself upon the counter and spreads her legs. Her pussy is swollen and dripping with cum. She reaches for him and pulls him close, kisses him hard. Wrapping her legs around his waist she starts rubbing his cock against her clit. She pushes hard against him, slowly sliding his cock inside her pussy. She locks her ankles and drives his cock deep inside her. He fucks her slowly at first and feels her pussy sucking his cock in deeper and holding it. The contractions drive him wild as he continues to slam into her and as she bangs his back with her heels. He leans over and kisses her open mouth, shoving his tongue into it and stroking hers. He begins to move faster, she arches wanting more. Her hands clawing his ass, his arms underneath her shoulders, holding them tightly as he fucks her harder. Their bodies slam against each other, their heat combining. Her legs tighten around him, she begins to thrash underneath him, as she begins to cum. She drives him deep within her, wanting every inch inside her. Her pussy is hot, making his rock-hard dick ready to explode. He feels his legs begin to tense, he thrusts into her harder. He shudders as he cums heavily inside her, moaning each time he releases, his cock jerking and her pussy reacting by clenching it tightly. They collapse in each others arms, exhausted, hearts pounding, trying to catch their breath. He has taken care of her need once again. She whispers thank you and kisses him softly. She leaves the room for now but carries him with her always.
