Contributors Wanted

Greenwood Press has engaged Dr. Joseph Byrne of Belmont University to edit the new two-volume A to Z reference work Encyclopedia of Plague, Pestilence and Pandemic. Byrne is currently seeking qualified contributors on topics covering most of world history and a wide range of diseases. Articles cover major diseases and epidemics from antiquity to the present. Special emphasis will be on the social, cultural, and other historical effects of diseases and on the ways in which various cultures have responded to them. Articles will be from 500 to 3,000 words in length, with a few longer anchor pieces. Substantial contributors will be compensated with copies of the work and/or small cash honoraria. This is a first call for authors. For further information please contact Byrne at byrnej@mail.belmont.edu, or via the Honors Program, Belmont University, 1900 Belmont Blvd., Nashville, TN 37212
