The center offers multiple bachelor’s degrees, including

- Agribusiness
- College of Business and Global Affairs
  - Management, Marketing, Accounting, and Political Science
- Criminal Justice
- Farm & Ranch Management
- History
- Interdisciplinary Studies
- K-5 Education
- Psychology
- Social Work
- Special Education

MBA Graduate Program now offered!

Various general-education undergraduate courses are also available for those interested in working toward a degree close to home.

For more information, contact:
Jessica Cannon,
Director
jcannon23@utm.edu
731-221-8778

APPLY TODAY!

Make your dream of earning a college degree a reality at the UT Martin Ripley Center!

The University of Tennessee at Martin Ripley Center first opened its doors in 2005. The state-of-the-art facility includes general classroom space, science and computer labs, distance learning classrooms, conference room, student lounge, library resources center and a lecture hall. The Ripley and Lauderdale County Communities and local businesses provide more than $50,000 in scholarships to UTM Ripley Center students.
The UT Martin criminal justice program focuses on the study of the criminal law, criminal procedure, and law enforcement. Students will gain knowledge of the United States criminal justice system, an understanding of crime, and study the effectiveness of various crime control strategies. The program prepares students for employment in the criminal justice field or further education.

Criminal Justice
Advisor: Dr. Michael Gurley
mgurley@utm.edu

The special education program at UT Martin prepares future teachers with the ability to communicate with, educate, inspire, and guide the students they will have in the classroom through a wide variety of courses geared towards student success and understanding.

Special Education
Advisor: Dr. Clinton Smith
csmite79@utm.edu

The UT Martin Selmer Center offers a full Bachelor of Science in Education, Integrated Studies K-5. Our primary mission is the preparation of K-5 educators. UT Martin’s educator preparation program is approved by the Tennessee State Board of Education and accredited by the Council for the Accreditation of Educator Preparation (CAEP).

K-5 Education
Advisor: Texas Culver
tculver@utm.edu

Admission to Educator Preparation Program will be granted if students:

- Have an ACT score of 22 or higher OR pass all 3 parts of the Praxis CORE exam.
- Establish and maintain a cumulative GPA of 2.75.
- Demonstrate an acceptable level of written and oral communication skills during an interview process.
- Submit to and successfully pass a criminal background check and sign the release form.

The agricultural business program at UT Martin combines business fundamentals like finance, economics, and management with the technical knowledge needed to launch a career in the agriculture industry. In addition to agribusiness courses, students can choose electives in animal science, plant and soil science, and agricultural engineering technology to prepare for the various aspects of farm and ranch management.

Agribusiness/Farm and Ranch Management
Advisor: Dr. Danny Morris
dmorris25@utm.edu

The special education program at UT Martin prepares future teachers with the ability to communicate with, educate, inspire, and guide the students they will have in the classroom through a wide variety of courses geared towards student success and understanding.

Special Education
Advisor: Dr. Clinton Smith
csmite79@utm.edu

The BIS degree is individualized, allowing students to choose courses that best match their career goals. Created to meet the needs of working adults and others whose educational objectives are unmet by traditional degree programs, the BIS is a self-designed general studies degree. There are no specific course requirements beyond 38 hours in "core" courses, and students may receive academic credit for previous non-college learning experiences (up to 12 hours). The BIS is a complete, four-year baccalaureate degree that complies with all university requirements.

Interdisciplinary Studies
Advisor: Jessica Cannon
jcanno23@utm.edu

College of Business and Global Affairs

Management, Marketing, Accounting, and Political Science
Advisor: Jenny Killebrew
jkilleb5@utm.edu

Students in the College of Business and Global Affairs can choose from many majors: Management, Marketing, Accounting, or Political Science. All programs are accredited by The Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB International).

Online coursework may also be needed.

The hybrid MBA program includes online coursework and five Saturday class meetings per semester. The program is designed to be completed in 18 months and will teach fundamental management techniques from finance and marketing to strategy and organizational theory.

Master’s in Business Administration
Advisor: Jenny Killebrew
jkilleb5@utm.edu

A major in history builds a solid foundation for careers in law, education, government, politics, and other areas. This degree program will deepen your understanding of United States, European, and world history and how our current society has been shaped by the events of the past, as well as how our actions today may influence things to come.

History
Advisor: Dr. Ben Guyer
bguyer@utm.edu

A major in social work prepares you to work with diverse populations in counseling, health care, schools, community organizations and many others. Internships are a key component and provide in-depth, hands-on learning experiences. Graduates are eligible for membership in the National Association of Social Workers (NASW) and, in many states (including Tennessee), can become licensed as social workers.

Social Work
Advisor: Shelby East
sstanto2@utm.edu

The agricultural business program at UT Martin combines business fundamentals like finance, economics, and management with the technical knowledge needed to launch a career in the agriculture industry. In addition to agribusiness courses, students can choose electives in animal science, plant and soil science, and agricultural engineering technology to prepare for the various aspects of farm and ranch management.

Agribusiness/Farm and Ranch Management
Advisor: Dr. Danny Morris
dmorris25@utm.edu

The special education program at UT Martin prepares future teachers with the ability to communicate with, educate, inspire, and guide the students they will have in the classroom through a wide variety of courses geared towards student success and understanding.

Special Education
Advisor: Dr. Clinton Smith
csmite79@utm.edu

The BIS degree is individualized, allowing students to choose courses that best match their career goals. Created to meet the needs of working adults and others whose educational objectives are unmet by traditional degree programs, the BIS is a self-designed general studies degree. There are no specific course requirements beyond 38 hours in “core” courses, and students may receive academic credit for previous non-college learning experiences (up to 12 hours). The BIS is a complete, four-year baccalaureate degree that complies with all university requirements.

Interdisciplinary Studies
Advisor: Jessica Cannon
jcanno23@utm.edu

College of Business and Global Affairs

Management, Marketing, Accounting, and Political Science
Advisor: Jenny Killebrew
jkilleb5@utm.edu

Students in the College of Business and Global Affairs can choose from many majors: Management, Marketing, Accounting, or Political Science. All programs are accredited by The Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB International).

Online coursework may also be needed.

The hybrid MBA program includes online coursework and five Saturday class meetings per semester. The program is designed to be completed in 18 months and will teach fundamental management techniques from finance and marketing to strategy and organizational theory.

Master’s in Business Administration
Advisor: Jenny Killebrew
jkilleb5@utm.edu

A major in history builds a solid foundation for careers in law, education, government, politics, and other areas. This degree program will deepen your understanding of United States, European, and world history and how our current society has been shaped by the events of the past, as well as how our actions today may influence things to come.

History
Advisor: Dr. Ben Guyer
bguyer@utm.edu