Office of Research and Sponsored Programs (ORSP)

- Exists to support a culture of intellectual inquisitiveness and scholarly activity on the UT Martin campus.
- Encourages and supports scholarship by promoting access to research funding through competitive internal and external grants designed to help faculty members launch research projects.
- Aids and supports both faculty and staff in obtaining external funding through activities such as subscribing to grant databases and providing technical help with grant applications.
ProQuest Pivot

Pivot is a searchable database of funding opportunities and researchers available to UT Martin faculty and staff.

Identifies researcher expertise both inside and outside your organization with millions of profiles from leading research organizations worldwide.

Enhances communication, monitoring, and tracking for individual faculty members, teams, and/or researchers.

Helps members build strong network connections to identify future opportunities.
