Founded in 1968, the National Student Exchange has placed over 80,000 students and has established a reputation for quality service.

What is the benefit?
The amazing opportunity to expand your Educational Cultural and Personal Horizons

8/18/2014 National Student Exchange and University of Tennessee - Martin
Why NSE?

• Low-cost options to study across state, regional, provincial, and cultural borders for a semester or an academic year

• Geographically, culturally, and ethnically diverse programs such as:
  • Historically Black Institutions
  • Hispanic Serving Institutions
  • Sea-Grant Universities
  • Private Colleges

• High degree of program compatibility
Why NSE?

As part of the NSE Experience, you have the opportunity to...

- Broaden your personal and educational perspectives
  - Explore and appreciate new cultures
- Experience personal growth
  - Become more independent and resourceful
- Live in a different area

...all while studying at another NSE member institution
Why NSE?

As part of the NSE Experience, you have the opportunity to...

• Expand university boundaries
• Learn from different instructors
  • Investigate graduate and professional schools
• Look for future employment opportunities

“The personal growth that came from leaving my comfort zone and experiencing something new was most rewarding.”
~Margaret Van Dollen, Cal Poly to University of Wisconsin, River Falls
Other NSE Benefits

• Improve Language Skills
• Honors Exchange
• Resident Assistant Exchange
• Access to courses not available at UT Martin

“I’d do it again in a heartbeat.”
~Nti Awakessien, University of Maine to Univ. of New Orleans
Explore Participation

Eligibility

Exploring Participation

Cost

The Exchange
Exploring Participation

- Talk to your parents
- Meet with NSE Coordinator
- Resident Assistant Exchange
- Consult your academic advisor
- Talk with Financial Aid to determine if your financial resources are sufficient for exchange
- Review host campus course catalogs with your advisor
Eligibility

- Full-time enrollment at home campus at time of application and prior to participation
- 2.75 GPA
- Sophomore, junior, or senior at time of exchange
- In good Academic, Social, and Financial standing

- Complete application and selection process, including payment of application fees by March 1st
UT Martin is PLAN B ONLY

What does this mean?

- Pay tuition to UT Martin
- Financial Aid remains through UT Martin, including the Tennessee Lottery Scholarship, if applicable
- Room/Board, other pertinent fees are paid to HOST campus
- Student is responsible for transportation costs to and from the host campus
The Exchange FYIs

• May be Fall or Spring Semester or one full academic year
• You must be a full-time student during your exchange
• Placements are made the second week of March
• After-Conference placements are available at a limited number of campuses
• Fill out online NSE application, pay NSE and UTM NSE fees
• Return NSE advising form to NSE Coordinator after meeting with your UTM advisor
• When accepted, return necessary paperwork to host campus in timely manner
“My exchange taught me that life itself is a classroom into which we must invest ourselves completely...in all circumstances and experiences.” ~Ashley Golder, Univ. of New Hampshire to Humboldt State Univ
NSE will change your life...

...and open the doors to new OPPORTUNITIES
Where can I get more Information?

Melanie Young, M.S.Ed.
NSE Coordinator
258 Clement Hall
Student Services & Success Mentoring Ctr.
(731) 881-1598    nse@utm.edu

www.nse.org
THE UNIVERSITY OF TENNESSEE AT MARTIN

THE CAMPUS THAT CARES!