2014 WestStar Graduation
25th WestStar Class to Graduate

The WestStar Class of 2014, the 25th class to participate in the program, graduated June 19 at the DoubleTree Hotel in Jackson. As every class knows, your class is the best class, but the Class of 2014 made it their goal to bond over the course of the sessions. Whether they were going up the day before a session or working on their class project together, they made it their mission to get each person involved. The WestStar staff looks forward to each participating as alumni. Congratulations to:

WestStar Class Honors:
Chad Davis – Chad Davis (right), of Dyersburg, is joined by Davis Glasgow (left), of Nashville. Chad Davis received the C.P. Boyd Leadership Award on June during UT Martin’s WestStar leadership program graduation. The award recognizes the individual with the most leadership potential as voted by the current WestStar class. Davis is the president of Davis Wealth Services in Dyersburg. Glasgow is the USDA Rural Development Communications Director and was the 2013 C.P. Boyd Leadership Award recipient.

2014 Nick Dunagan Leadership Scholarship

Caroline Cannon, a sophomore running major from Covington, was awarded the 2014-15 Nick Dunagan WestStar Leadership Scholarship during the WestStar graduation program, June 19, in Jackson. She is the daughter of Harriet and Tarrant Cannon. Harriet is area director for USDA Rural Development and a 2000 WestStar graduate. The scholarship goes to a student who has proven leadership skills or displays leadership potential. Preference is given to students who display a high level of academic achievement and who have a proven record of community or university involvement. The WestStar Board of Trustees selects the scholarship recipient.

Dr. Nick Dunagan is a WestStar Leadership Program founder, former executive director of the program and UT Martin chancellor emeritus. He established the scholarship to be awarded to a dependent of a WestStar alumnus whose student is enrolled at the university.
