UNIVERSITY OF TENNESSEE AT MARTIN
Travel Scholarship Awards
(Funded by the SGA Travel-Study Fee)

Amount of Award

Awards are typically made in the following amounts:

- For domestic travel-study programs: $500.
- For International Travel or Study Abroad Programs: $1,200.

**Only one award per year per student*****

Eligibility

Any full-time undergraduate, graduate or TIEP student who enrolls in a travel-study or study-abroad program approved by the Travel-Study Scholarship Committee can apply. Normally, these will be programs sponsored by UTM, but students may request support for the travel-study/study-abroad programs they have developed on their own. Awards will be made primarily to students undertaking substantial travel-study projects, which will generally fall into the following categories: travel-study programs (at least one week in duration), language immersion programs (at least three weeks in duration), study-abroad programs lasting one semester or an entire academic year. The Travel-Study Scholarship Committee will consider the following criteria when making awards:

- The cost of the applicant's travel-study program
- The duration of the program
- The program itinerary (preferably out-of-state and international travel)
- The academic content of the program
- The financial need of the applicant
- The availability of other funds to support the chosen program.

Requirements

Complete the application form along with the essay and email to jfrank27@utm.edu. The $75 application fee will be charged to your banner account once your application has been reviewed and approved. Student will receive an email once your application has been approved.

Important notes:

- Students are encouraged to make their travel-study plans early in the academic year and to apply for support by the most appropriate deadline. These funds, generated by the SGA Travel-Study Fee, are limited, and may be significantly depleted by the spring semester.
- Before a student may receive a scholarship, he/she must pay all outstanding university fees.
- Students must conform to the rules for submitting scholarship applications listed on the reverse side.
- Students should make a point of seeking additional scholarship assistance from other sources to supplement this award. Additional funds may be available from the Colleges and Departments within which they are majoring. See trip leader for additional scholarship information.
- Please understand that if you receive financial aid from this scholarship, you may be asked by the SGA Committee to present at an upcoming event. This would include a presentation about your travels to help enlighten other students about the benefits of traveling while in college. Failure to comply may constitute in some of or the entire amount you are awarded to be charged to you. Also understand that we encourage you to apply as soon as possible. If you apply later, you may be awarded only partial or none of the scholarship amounts due to the high interest in students traveling.
- Travel study scholarship awards are funded by the SGA Committee and will go directly towards the total cost of the selected travel study experience.
