EXPERIENTIAL LEARNING LEADERSHIP INSTITUTE
ELLI CONFERENCE

REVISED Call for Proposals: Information & Guidelines

"EXPERIENTIAL-LEARNING IN THE AGE OF AI"

April 3, 2025
Discovery Park of America
Union City, TN

Proposal Submission Deadline
March 15, 2025, at 11:59 p.m. EST

"Experiential-Learning in the Age of AI" solicits proposals that explore the impact of educating students via experiential-learning activities in an age of artificial intelligence and other technological advances. Additionally, the theme encourages proposal applicants to provide strategies, tools, and techniques to equip conference attendees with ideas and resources that can be implemented at participants' respective institutions.

CONFERENCE TRACKS

Proposals must be structured around experiential education areas of interest relevant to any level(s) of education. Additionally, the proposal should fit within one or more of the following conference tracks, although additional tracks will be considered:

- Assessment, Evaluation, & Student Research
- Entrepreneurship
- Career Development
- Challenges of Experiential Learning
- Agriculture
- Addressing Diversity

- Healthcare
- Experiential Learning F2F or Online
- Service Learning, Internships, & Cooperative Education
- K – 12 Education
- Post-secondary Education (all disciplines)
- Travel/Study Abroad

$295 Registration Fee for F2F presentations; $75 students & K–12 teachers; special rates for UTM faculty/admin.

SESSION TYPES

Proposals must be structured around one of the following conference session types:
- Traditional Presentation (30 minutes, April 3)
- Poster Presentations (from 2:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m., April 3)

SUBMISSION & NOTIFICATION

Proposals/abstracts must be no longer than 250 words in length, double-spaced; no citations required. All proposals are double-blind, peer reviewed. Incomplete proposals or improperly formatted proposals will not be considered. Applicants will be notified of the status of their proposals by March 12, 2025. Applicants will need to register for the conference by March 15, 2025.

Complete the Proposal Application at www.utm.edu/elli/
by clicking on the Submit Proposals link.